● John Jay - Chairman

That geographical relations may be clear, let it be borne in mind that this deposition was made before the committee at Fishkill, in Connor's Tavern, which is presumed to have stood not far from the house of Judge Jay, and not far, either, from the neighborhood named on modern maps Wicopae, or Johnsville, East Fishkill. Court proceedings, therefore, if that is what to call them, took place only two or three hours horseback ride north of Crane's, McLean's and Baldwin's, where the company of Tory recruits were captured.

said he had a Company of men with him, and asked this deponent, if they might come in, and warm themselves, to which this deponent consented, and they accordingly came in, That then the said Dusenbury, proceeded to enquire of this deponent, for the houses of one Baldwin, and one Craft (both of whom this deponent understood were Tories) saying, they wanted to go Secure, and that if this deponent would not expose them, they would be friends to him hereafter, That this deponent inform'd them, where the said persons liv'd and the better to pass himself upon them as a friend, told them that the road they were going, led by the houses of three or four Whigs. That from the whole of their conversation and Conduct, while at this deponents house, he concluded they were going to join the Enemy, That some of the Company call'd the said Dusenbury Captain, upon which this deponent asked the said Dusenbury how he came to be a Captain, to which he replied it was no matter, That after staying at this deponents house, about an hour, they went away. And after they were out of sight, this deponent took his Gun, and run to Captain Crane's, and inform'd him of the matters, above mentioned. That they got together a number of men, that this deponent with 6 others went one road, and Capt. Crane with the rest of the men another road, in pursuit of the said Company, That this deponent with his Company surrounded Crafts house, and found there a number of the said company, whom they apprehended, and confin'd in the Same house, That this deponent ~~then~~ then went alone to McLeans Tavern, where this deponent understood a number of New England Soldiers lodged, That they got a party of them, and went and surrounded Baldwin's house, and there he found, and apprehended a number more of the said Company, and while this deponent was there, Capt. Crane with his company came there to his assistance, That he thinks the said Company so apprehended, amounts to thirty seven, and further saith not.

This Board took into Consideration the State and Crimes of the Prisoners confined in the Long Goal and thereupon Resolved That John Dusenberry, Simon Covill, Alexander Campbell Daniel, McAlpin etc be removed from this Place to Connecticut there to be disposed of as Governor Trumbull shall order and direct, and that the said Persons be acquainted with the above Resolve, and ordered to be ready for their departure from hence on Monday next and that in the mean Time Coll^d Van Schaick be requested to have a Guard ready at that Time to escort them down

28th July 1776

As a result of letter from some of the Prisoners destined for Connecticut the date of departure was postponed to "Friday next"

2nd Aug 1776

The Secretary laid before (this board) the following letter for the Committee of Dutchess County respecting the Tories sent from this Place to Connecticut which is approved of and ordered to be Copied and sent to said Committee (prout).

My dear Mr. [Name],

I have just received your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope this finds you the same. I have been thinking much of late about the future of our country and the state of our Union. It seems to me that we are passing through a great crisis, and that the result will determine whether we are to remain a united people or become a collection of warring states.

I am sure that you are also thinking of these things, and I am sure that you are not alone in your views. I believe that the only way to preserve our Union is by maintaining the principles of liberty and justice for all. We must not allow ourselves to be divided by sectional interests or by the passions of the moment. We must stand together, firm and united, against all who would seek to destroy our country.

I am, Sir, your very obedient servant,

JESSE G. DUSENBURY

Carrying Place

The funeral of Jesse G. Dusenbury, Carrying Place, was held from the Weaver Funeral Home, Trenton, on Monday where service was conducted by Rev. John Irwin of King Street United Church, Trenton.

Interment was in Carrying Place cemetery, with Vernon Westfall, George Latour, George Harris, Jr., Alex Campbell, Arthur Hewton and Oliver Frost acting as bearers.

Well known throughout the Carrying Place district where he operated the J. G. Dusenbury Real Estate Agency for many years, Mr. Dusenbury died Friday in Trenton Memorial Hospital following a two months' illness. He was 70.

Born at Castleton, Ont., he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dusenbury, and had lived at Carrying Place for the past 60 years. He was a member of the United Church at Carrying Place and was a former member of the Knights of Pythias and of the IOOF in Trenton. At one time he was manager of United Cigar Stores at Toronto, Hamilton and Winnipeg.

He is survived by his wife, the former Harriett Bennett; by a daughter, Mrs. O. M. (Martha) Gilmaster of Toronto, and by Arley Tompkins of Picton. Two other children, Francis Irwin and Clarence Tompkins, predeceased him.

Also surviving are a brother, Gordon Dusenbury of Brighton; grandchildren Joy and Robert Gilmaster, and great grandchildren Linda and Eric Gilmaster, all of Toronto.

capable of stopping planes coming to bomb defenceless Cuba?" he asked.

As he spoke, Cuban air force planes criss - crossed the skies. But the only violence reported in the capital during his speech was the throwing of a small bomb at the building of the pro-government newspaper Revolution. A passer-by was wounded slightly.

Castro called his followers to his support after Matos and 30 of his officers in Camaguey resigned from the revolutionary army last week, mystery planes simultaneously bombarded Havana with anti - Castro leaflets and terrorist gangs roared through the capital in cars, throwing bombs and grenades.

The threat to revive the military tribunals underscored the gravity of the crisis facing Castro. He himself had abolished them July 12 and halted the executions after at least 555 Cubans by unofficial tabulation had died. Since then the maximum penalty imposed by civil courts for activities against the government has been 30 years in prison.
